SPECIAL - Demiurg Citadel class ships are heavily automated and count their Ld value as 9 at the start of the battle. The Citadel's Ld will drop by -1 for each point of damage it suffers, but its Ld value will not drop any further than 5. - Bridge smashed critical hits will not inflict additional Leadership loss on a Demiurg ship, but instead cause an extra point of damage (and possible attendant Ld loss) on the vessel. - A Citadel class vessel is worth 185 Victory points normally but in a pure Demiurg fleet or one fighting against Orks it is worth 200 Victory points instead to reflect its extra determination. This does not affect its starting point cost. - Demiurg 'Citadel' class vessels cannot employ Come to New Heading special orders.

Hidden among the more closely-guarded systems frequented by the Demiurg are vessels specialized for mining and resource harvesting. These vessels outwardly resemble Bastion vessels in all respects but vary in critical details. The volume in Bastion vessels dedicated to attack craft and broadside lances is entirely turned over to specialized resource harvesting equipment. Outwardly they resemble the more familiar but still rare Bastion commerce vessels in all respects, and only through their interaction with the Tau did some Rogue Traders become aware there was a distinction between ship types.

USING CITADEL COMMERCE VESSELS

Citadel Commerce Vessels outwardly resemble Bastion Commerce vessels in all respects, and the same model may be used to represent either ship class. To represent its complex resource-gathering and harvesting systems, the model is mounted on a large base, which due to the unique nature of Demiurg shields is not nearly the handicap it would be for other races! It can be used as allies in the same manner as Bastion Commerce Vessels in any fleet that can take Bastions. This allows Demiurg vessels to be used in a pure fleet or be taken as a ship choice in scenarios limited by the amount of points that may be taken.
