OPTIONS
• Can be retrofitted with a targeting matrix. It gives its weapons batteries a left column shift on the Gunnery table and costs an additional +15 pts (like the Imperious, which was retrofitted with a salvaged targeting matrix after the Battle of Orar). • May purchase a third turret for an additional +10 points.

The Imperious is one of the few surviving examples of the Mars class battlecruiser. Production of these vessels at the Martian shipyards was discontinued over eighteen centuries before the beginning of the Gothic War and the number of ships in service has declined steadily since then. Reckoned to be undergunned by many captains, the Mars class battlecruiser Imperious earned its laurels at the outset of the war during a surprise attack on the hive world of Orar. Early in the engagement the Imperious managed to get underway and scored a devastating hit on the Slaughter class cruiser Soulless with its nova cannon. While Soulless was still reeling from the damage a salvo of lance hits from the Imperious detonated its plasma core and annihilated it. A wave of Starhawk bombers from the Imperious crippled a second Slaughter class cruiser which was subsequently destroyed by Orar's orbital defences, breaking the back of the Chaos attack with minimal damage to Imperial forces. Captain Compel Bast of the Imperious was subsequently awarded the Solar Cluster for the heroic actions of his ship and crew.
