SPECIAL Vanquisher class battleships are slow and ponderous vessels and cannot use Come to New Heading special orders.

The Vanquisher class battleship is regarded by analysts as an ancient design even by the standards of the Imperial Navy. The Vae Victis in particular has an extensive and storied history long pre-dating its joining Battlefleet Bakka. What records survive indicate it was constructed in the orbital shipyards of Hydraphur in the late 32nd millennia, built at the request of High Lord Javor. Following its construction the battleship saw action during the Pacification of Magdellan and the Saint-Saen Crusade. Whilst on this extended crusade the vessel was recorded 'lost in warp' with all hands. Believed thrown wildly off course by warpstorms the Vae Victis returned some 200 years later. Records do not detail the intervening years.

The next verifiable records of this vessel come from its service in the Ultima Segmentum, where it served for a time as part of the Dominion Fleet of the Ultramarines. Over the next millennia the ship underwent an extensive refit to repair extensive damage to its lance batteries and propulsion system, but the circumstances surrounding when this damage was sustained are unknown.

Aged and suffering continued problems with its engines, the Vae Victis was mothballed as part of the fleet reserve in the 38th millennia and left in a stationary orbit around Drawkesd in Segmentum Tempestus along with three other vessels of this class. Weapon and shield systems were stripped for reuse. For long centuries the battleship was left to decay in a forgotten backwater. Following the Battle of Circe, increased pressure on Imperial Navy Segmentum resources led to the Vae Victis being recommissioned. All four surviving examples of this class are currently undergoing re-armament and crew training before resuming active service to make up for the horrific losses from that battle.
