SPECIAL		• In addition to the profile listed above, Inquisitorial cruisers follow special rules specific to the Ordo they serve under. • Inquisitorial cruisers do not have access to Thunderhawk Annihilators, even if included in a Space Marine Crusade Fleet.
OPTIONS		• An Inquisitorial cruiser may replace its launch bays for strength-6, Speed: 30 cm torpedo tubes for no change in cost. Torpedo tubes may fire normal or boarding torpedoes. • If the torpedo refit is taken, the ship does not have to be modified to serve as an Exterminatus vessel in the same manner as Space Marine battle barges, as they are always equipped with virus bombs and cyclotronic warheads as standard. As such, when in position to exterminate a planet, it may do so on a roll of 3+ instead of 4+. • An Inquisitorial cruiser may replace its dorsal bombardment cannon for strength-2, range: 45 cm lances firing Left/Front/ Right for +15 points.

On occasion Inquisitors will utilize one of their own organization's specially-constructed warships. The Inquisition can summon vast resources, and its seat on Terra enables the relatively few vessels they actually possess to call upon all the technological advances and fabrication methods available to the shipwrights and fleets of Mars itself. While a few standard patterns are used by the Inquisition, they are just as often purpose-constructed and optimized for a particular requirement. Inquisitors and their retinues must be prepared for any contingency, and these ships are faster, better armed and better protected than warships typically utilized by the Imperial Navy. While not specifically Blackships per se, Inquisitors are not above referring to them as such precisely because of the awe and fear the mere mention of such vessels incur. Inquisitors will typically utilize these ships only as required for their mission, though some may have such vessels and their crews detailed to them for extended periods of time. Inquisitor Lord Torquemada Coteaz is but one of a number of Inquisitor Lords that have an Inquisitorial Cruiser permanently detailed at their express disposal.
