

AUXILIARY VESSELS

SPECIAL

- When a Rogue Trader fleet is accompanying another fleet, up to half the escorts in the Rogue Trader fleet may be vessels picked from the fleet list the Rogue Trader is accompanying, at the normal cost. For example, if accompanying a Gothic Sector Imperial fleet, up to half the escorts in the fleet can be picked from the Gothic Sector Imperial Navy fleet list. These can be mixed in squadrons (up to 6 ships) with Rogue Trader escorts in any manner desired.
This restriction is not in place in an Exploration Fleet list.

Rogue Traders will commonly petition for the use of a fleet's vessels as part payment for their services, and on occasion may even retain the vessels permanently. Most fleet commanders are more than happy to have a small number of their own ships acting in concert with any Rogue Traders in their employ, not least because they are likely to trust their own escort officers and crews rather more than they trust Rogue Traders.
