The Desolator class battleship dates back to the very founding of the Imperium and utilises technology long since lost to the Adeptus Mechanicus. None now remain in Imperial service, but it is known that at least five Desolators defected from the Emperor's light between the 31st and the 34th millennium. Of these, the Eternity of Pain, renamed by its traitorous captain, is perhaps the most infamous. At least seven Imperial battleships are known to have fallen to its immensely powerful lances and long range gun decks since it turned renegade in 453.M33. Countless smaller vessels are also no more, due to this potent behemoth of the stars. The Torment, older still than the Eternity of Pain, was captured by renegade pirates during the Spartan War, after its engines were destroyed and it drifted helplessly into a mined asteroid field. Seventy-eight years after its capture, the Torment was instrumental in obliterating the orbital defences of Ghor VI, prior to that planet's invasion by Eldar pirates. The Torment has been spotted as far afield as the Ultima Segmentum and even participated in an attack on an Imperial convoy in the Jobe Sector on the northern rim.
