SPECIAL	- Shadowhunters are so nimble that they can even pursue attack craft with ease, harrying the smaller vessels with an agility impossible for other escorts. When coming in base contact with any attack craft, they may re-roll a failed holofield save (the second roll stands). This effect only works against attack craft, and markers that behave only as fighters are still ignored normally. - Due to their extremely small size and crew complement, Shadowhunters cannot initiate boarding actions. - A ship that successfully boards a Shadowhunter gains a +1 modifier in addition to any other modifiers. - All hit and run attacks against Shadowhunters add +1 to their roll.
OPTIONS	Choose one prow weapon option for each Shadowhunter in the fleet as part of its point cost. An escort squadron may consist of Shadowhunters armed with different armaments.

Shadowhunters are the smallest type of vessel employed by Iyanden, operating in vast shoals which shimmer and weave a short distance above the craftworld's surface as it ploughs through space. These Shadowhunter packs function as a constant patrol, guarding the approach of friendly vessels coming into dock, or spinning and bobbing around the craftworld with horrifying speed to drive off would-be attackers at a proximity where larger vessels would find it difficult to function effectively. Because of this defensive role, Shadowhunters have a very limited range, designed as they are to repel attackers which manage to actually approach the craftworld itself. Weapons and power systems on the Shadowhunters are correspondingly compact, making the Shadowhunter one of the nimblest and most agile of vessels, even by Eldar standards. Shadowhunters are so nimble, in fact, that they are capable of pursuing their enemy so closely that even enemy attack craft find it hard to evade them. During the Tyranid invasion of Iyanden, Shadowhunters typically formed a last line of defence close to the craftworld, while the larger vessels broke down the main Tyranid waves in deep space. The scattered remnants of these waves which were able to pass the Eldar cruisers and approach the craftworld were then easy pickings for the nimble Shadowhunters. As more and more waves of Tyranids descended on the craftworld, however, the Eldar fleet was overwhelmed by sheer weight of numbers, forcing the Shadowhunters to disperse and join their larger counterparts in fighting desperate counteractions in the depths of space.
