OPTIONS • Ork Lite Kroozers are essentially capital ships rushed into battle incomplete and as-is. For no change in cost, they may exchange their prow heavy gunz for a torpedo launcha (Speed 30 cm, Strength D6) or additional D6 gunz (for D6+2 in total). • If fitted with a torpedo launcha, it may carry boarding torpedoes (Speed 20 cm, Strength D6) at a cost of +5 pts.

While encountered on occasion wherever the Orks carried their incessant Waaghs! into Imperial space, it was only during the Third War for Armageddon that Ork Lite Kroozers were seen in any numbers. While many have postulated why this is so, the general consensus among tacticians is that like everything else about Orks, bigger is always better. Orks will rarely stop at improving or adding to their vessels until it reaches a point where it is beyond the resources of technical abilities of most Ork warbosses to make them any larger. In this respect the Lite Kroozers encountered may quite often be works in progress, vessels ramshackle even by Ork standards and rushed into battle by their reckless Kaptains while still gathering the teef and gubbins to fully outfit their vessel in an Orky fashion! Ork Lite Kroozers were seen in a wide variety of forms during the Third Armageddon War, including several bizarre variants super-customized almost exclusively for ramming and boarding actions. While some appeared to be constructed from captured Dauntless or Endeavour light cruiser hulls, some took more bizarre forms and defied any classification whatsoever.

Representing Lite Kroozers: By their very nature, Ork Lite Kroozers come in a wide array of forms. They may represent a captured or salvaged Imperial light cruiser hull instead of the larger Imperial or Chaos cruisers Orks more typically build their Kill Kroozers and Terror Ships from. Conversely, they may have originated from an enterprising Ork Kaptain that cut apart and bolted together several escorts he captured, salvaged or even re-appropriated from his own skwadron! Like all Ork capital ships, each one is a never-ending work in progress so feel free to represent it any way you like, painted appropriately of course.
